

HELLO!

NUMBER 91 FEBRUARY 24, 1990 • 96p

ANGLO-ARMENIAN RECEPTION

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr Robert Runcie and Mrs Runcie welcomed members of the Anglo-Armenian Association to Lambeth Palace for a reception and exhibition of paintings by the Armenian artist Rudolf Khachaturian.

In the spirit of glasnost the association was formed in 1989 to promote cultural relations between Armenia and Britain with Mrs

Runcie as President, Princess Helena Moutafian as Deputy, and Mrs Odette Bazil the founding chairman.

Among the guests at Lambeth Palace were Lady Combermere, the Earl of Shannon, Lady Elizabeth Granville of Eye, Bishop Gizirian who is head of the Armenian community in London, Jacqueline, Lady Killearn and the sculptress Sheika Shenda Amery Khazal.

Jacqueline, Lady Killearn and Dr Runcie (left). Mrs Robert Runcie and Princess Helena Moutafian (below)

Mr and Mrs Elsik Ahsana (above).
Bishop Gizirian and Mrs Anais Abadgian
(below)

